Civil Action No. 4:22-cv-00062 (GAF)

PLAINTIFFS' NOTICE OF VOLUNTARY DISMISSAL<sup>1</sup>

In light of the new information provided in Defendants recent filings, Plaintiffs Hoppock Law Firm, LLC, and Kelly Hewitt hereby elect not to meaningfully contest Defendants' Motion to Dismiss. Defendants' representations that the letter in question was nothing more than a request for voluntary cooperation and that there is nothing Defendants could possibly do to punish noncompliance have alleviated Plaintiffs' objectively reasonable concerns, and so, without conceding the validity of Defendants' legal arguments, Plaintiffs elect to voluntarily dismiss this case rather than further burden the Court with this dispute.<sup>2</sup>

Plaintiffs expect to enter into negotiations with Defendants in the near future regarding costs and attorneys' fees. Should the parties be unable to reach an agreement regarding fees, Plaintiffs will file an appropriate fee petition with the Court.

<sup>1</sup> Plaintiffs' undersigned counsel Kel McClanahan sincerely apologizes to the Court for filing this response out of time. He misconstrued the Local Rules to allow him 21 days to respond to Defendants' motion, and only belatedly realized that that period only applies to summary judgment motions, not to all dispositive motions.

Date: August 31, 2022
